

Congregational Church of Mansfield
A United Church of Christ Congregation

Permission Slip and Covenant of Conduct Form

EVENT: _____

Date & Time: _____

As parent/guardian of a participating student, I give permission for my daughter/son to attend the event above. I understand that s/he is expected to abide by all rules of good conduct and follow the directions of the youth group leaders. My daughter/son and I have read, signed, and agreed to abide by the covenant of behavior printed below. I hereby release and discharge Congregational Church of Mansfield, their leadership team, and their volunteers from any and all debts, judgments, or suits of any kind which may arise from the applicant's participation in this event. Furthermore, I give the retreat leadership permission to seek appropriate medical treatment/care for my daughter/son should the need arise.

Participant's Covenant of Conduct

As a participant in the event listed above, and as a representative of my church and community, I agree to accept and abide by the following guidelines during this event:

1. Participation in all scheduled activities is expected.
2. Anything that is considered illegal for minors under civil and criminal law is considered illegal for participants. This includes drug or alcohol possession or consumption, smoking, and possession of firearms, weapons, or fireworks.
3. All conduct and language will be in keeping with the highest Christian regard and respect for all persons.
4. The purpose of this event is to foster Christian growth and development and to experience Christian fellowship and community. Although we expect the growth and development of significant friendships while participating in youth activities, this is not an appropriate setting for excessive displays of affection.
5. The partner system is in effect at all times during this event.
6. Live by the simple guidelines of love and respect for the rights, feelings, and property of others. Respect God's creation as well.
7. Respect any and all directions given by the adult advisory team.

I understand that if I do not follow the above guidelines, appropriate disciplinary action will be required. Decisions about appropriate disciplinary action will be made by the event leaders who reserve the right to call the parents/guardians and/or dismiss any person who breaks the covenant. My signature indicates that I have read the Covenant and agree to abide by it as outlined.
